

Movers & Shakers

July 16, 2010

Julie Pung

Essex Realty Management (“ERM”) - one of the top regional commercial property management firms in the Western United States, recently hired Julie Pung as assistant manager. She will be based in the Irvine, Calif. office. With more than five years experience in real estate management, Pung is currently assisting a diverse portfolio of properties consisting of office buildings, multi-tenant office and industrial parks as well as “big box” industrial buildings located in Orange and Los Angeles Counties. She is an active member in the following industry organizations: Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) and Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA).